

BRIEFING ON THE AMENDMENTS AND EXPANSION OF THE PEMBANGUNAN SUMBER MANUSIA BERHAD ACT 2001

Effective 1 April 2017, the Pembangunan Sumber Manusia Berhad (PSMB) or the Human Resources Development Fund (HRDF) is amending the PSMB Act 2001 to expand its scope of coverage for all sub-sectors under the Manufacturing, Services, and Mining & Quarrying sectors.

The Amendments and Expansion of the PSMB Act 2001 include an additional expansion of its Optional Category for employers with 5 to 9 Malaysian employees across the 3 mentioned sectors; standardisation of its Mandatory Category with the abolishment of the requirement for a paid-up capital for the Manufacturing and Mining & Quarrying sectors; and the mandatory requirement for employers across the 3 mentioned sectors with 10 or more Malaysian employees to register under the PSMB Act 2001.

For further information on the Amendments and Expansion of the PSMB Act 2001 and its benefits, we invite employers from the relevant sectors and industries to join us at the following briefing sessions:

Employers with 10 and more Malaysian employees covered under the following sub-sectors and have yet to register with PSMB are highly encouraged to attend.
